PACIFIC COMMUNITY VENTURES
PCV Loan Fund and PCV’s BusinessAdvising.org

PCV was launched in 1999 by two former Silicon Valley executives who saw the resources being made available to venture-backed tech startups (access to working capital, expert business advice, and extensive networks) and knew that independent businesses on Main Street would benefit from the same resources. Since our start, Pacific Community Ventures has helped over 4,000 small businesses grow and create tens of thousands of jobs in neighborhoods that need them most.

Pacific Community Ventures is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit community development financial institution (CDFI) that engages small businesses, impact investors, and policymakers to build an economy that works for everyone.
For 17 years PCV was/is a collection of 3 separate successful “brands” and separate teams. This was identified as both an immediate issue as well as an overall strategic opportunity.

Small Business Lending
State-wide program – California
PCV is a nonprofit lender that provides affordable small business loans from $10,000 to $200,000 to California businesses creating quality jobs in our local communities.

BusinessAdvising.org
National program
Matches small business owners with expert business advisors and mentors who provide tailored, hands-on assistance to grow their businesses.

Insight Impact Investing Research, Consulting, and Advisory Services
National and International Program
Provides information and analysis to clients with the goal of driving capital to social purpose. Provides customized research, strategic analysis, and advisory services to investors, policymakers, and market intermediaries to measure and communicate the social outcomes of your investments and increase your impact. Clients and partners include CalPERS, White House, British Cabinet Office, Rockefeller, Surdna, MacArthur, Ford, Kellogg and others.
In late 2015, after 14 years a new CEO came onboard and for the 1st time someone seriously asked the following questions:

- How can PCV leverage the successful work of each team to create an overall more successful organization? This was determined to be the key question.
- What effect would this have on the culture at PCV?
- How could this be used to further engage and motivate staff members?
- How could this be used to develop staff members?
- Could a sense of ownership and accountability be created in a way which was perceived as a positive for all concerned?
The road to answer these questions included:

- Leadership discussions
- Multiple meetings with each of the 3 teams plus our marketing, finance and grant writing associates
- Informal CEO lunch and learns with each team member
Ultimately:

- A strategic planning process was developed, scheduled and completed.
  - Each team developed 5 year goals along with team wants and needs
  - Each team presented to the organization and solicited feedback
  - Feedback was incorporated and the plans represented/finalized
  - Plans were incorporated into a central PCV strategic plan

- This process created a sense of “ownership” in the direction of PCV

- With the strategic plan in mind Leadership re-examined the associate review process being used

- A new Personal Development Plan was designed with 5 specific sections.
  - Section 1 - Creating a stronger organization
  - Section 2 - Specific financial/programmatic deliverables
  - Section 3 - Programmatic improvements
  - Section 4 - Cross team component
  - Section 5 - Personal development
