Success Story: Kingsley House, New Orleans, LA

Kingsley House – a longstanding nonprofit service provider – is supporting children, seniors and families still rebuilding their lives more than a decade after Hurricane Katrina. With a $4.3 million bridge loan and $6.5 million allocation of New Markets Tax Credits from LIIF, Kingsley House is building a new, 24,000-square-foot facility to expand its early childhood education and senior health services. The new site will enable Kingsley House to serve more seniors and preschool children and work toward meeting the need of its 500-family long waitlist. “Connecting my dad to young people keeps his spirits high and makes him feel loved.” – Christine, Daughter of Kingsley House Senior Service Recipient
